

PALO ALTO DAILY NEWS

March 19, 2010

Water conservation award winners named

Two businesses, two organizations, a city and a school district will receive Silicon Valley Water Conservation Awards on Monday, World Water Day. The awards, now in their second year, recognize groups whose programs and leadership have advanced water conservation in Silicon Valley.

The winners are:

- Agriculture — Nurseryman's Exchange
- Business — Cisco Systems
- Government agency — city of Hayward
- Education — California Landscape Contractors Association
- Greenscape management — Campbell Union School District
- Organization — Humane Society Silicon Valley

The awards will be presented at a ceremony hosted by Applied Materials, last year's business winner.

Ken Yeager, president of the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors, will deliver the keynote address. The event, which will take place from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., is free and open to the public. To RSVP, e-mail info@WaterAwards.org or call 415-882-7252, ext. 302